Trusting in God's Provision

How often do we rely on our possessions, status, or other people instead of trusting God?

This week's readings invite us to reflect on the call and mission God has for each of us and the Gospel, in particular, invites us to let go of our attachments and trust in God's care.

The first reading from the Book of Amos presents the prophet Amos, a simple shepherd and a farmer, who is chosen by God to deliver His message to Israel. Despite his humble background and lack of formal prophetic training, Amos responds to God's call with faith and obedience. This reminds us that God often chooses the least likely candidates to fulfill His purposes, emphasising that it is God's power and grace that enable us to carry out His will.

In the Gospel, Jesus sends out the Twelve Apostles, instructing them to take nothing for their journey except a staff - no bread, no haversack, and no money. They are to wear sandals but not an extra tunic. Why does Jesus give them these unusual instructions?

The answer is that Jesus wants his disciples to rely on God's provision and the kindness of others. By not taking extra supplies, the disciples have to trust that God will provide for their needs through the people they meet. This trust in God's care is a fundamental aspect of true discipleship and a central theme in our Christian faith.

We too, are called to spread God's love and message. We might not be traveling from town to town like the disciples, but we can still share God's message in our daily lives through kind words, helpful actions, and by showing love to everyone we meet. And Jesus' instructions remind us that we are called to rely not merely on our own resources or abilities, but on the grace and guidance of God.

As we reflect on today's readings, we are called to examine how we respond to God's call in our own lives. Are we willing to step out in faith, trusting in God's provision and guidance, even when we feel inadequate or unprepared?

Let us remember that we are sent by Jesus and therefore we do not need to have everything figured out or carry every resource with us. What we need most is faith and trust in God's plan. He will provide what we need when we need it. Let us also pray for the courage to say "yes" to God's call, the faith to rely on His provision, and the love to bring His peace and salvation to all we encounter.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME -YEAR B

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15

A reading from the prophet Amos

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets.'

Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."'

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 84:9-14. R. v.8

(R.) Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

Before the world was made, God chose us. Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determined that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight.

He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

Gospel Acclamation: Ephesians 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, ‘Do not take a spare tunic.’ And he said to them, ‘If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.’ So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

Chúa Nhật Tuần XV Mùa Thường Niên - Năm B

Bài đọc 1: Am 7, 12-15

Trích sách Tiên tri Amos.

Trong những ngày ấy, Amasia (vị tư tế ở Bêthel) nói cùng Amos rằng: “Hỡi tiên tri, người hãy trốn sang đất Giuđa, sinh sống và nói tiên tri ở đó. Chớ tiếp tục nói tiên tri ở Bêthel, vì đó là thánh điện của vua và là đền thờ của vương quốc”. Amos trả lời cùng Amasia rằng: “Tôi không phải là tiên tri, cũng không phải là con của tiên tri, nhưng là đứa chăn bò (và chuyên) đi hái trái sung. Khi tôi đang đi theo đàn chiên, thì Chúa dẫn tôi đi và nói cùng tôi rằng: “Người hãy đi nói tiên tri cho dân Israel của Ta”.

BÀI PHÚC ÂM: Mc 6, 7-13

Tin Mừng Chúa Giêsu Kitô theo Thánh Thánh Marcô.

Khi ấy, Chúa Giêsu gọi mười hai tông đồ và sai từng hai người đi, Người ban cho các ông có quyền trên các thần ô uế. Và Người truyền các ông đi đường, đừng mang gì, ngoài cây gậy, không mang bị mang bánh, không mang tiền trong túi, nhưng chân đi dép, và đừng mặc hai áo. Người lại bảo: “Đến đâu, các con vào nhà nào, thì ở lại đó cho đến khi ra đi. Ai không đón tiếp các con, cũng không nghe lời các con, thì hãy ra khỏi đó, phủ bụi chân để làm chứng tố cáo họ”. Các ông ra đi rao giảng sự thống hối. Các ông trừ nhiều quỷ, xức dầu chữa lành nhiều bệnh nhân.
